

Aatiqa Latif

Senior Trainer & Consultant

CELEBRATING TEN YEARS OF SUCCESS

PossibilitiesOfficial

Possibilities05

evokingmagnificence

 possibilities.net.pk

info@possibilities.net.pk

+92 42 3591 7122

Evoking Magnificence

Possibilities® is a global Management Development & Consulting group enabling organizations achieve peak performance. We specialize in Leadership Development, Transformation, Strategy and Executive Coaching. Over 300 top organizations, including Fortune 500 companies, repeatedly benefit from our training, consulting, coaching, recruitment, advisory and professional services. Through our cutting edge learning and consulting solutions, we reach out to over 50 million people every year.

Some of our key clients include Nestle, GE, Toyota, PepsiCo, Abbott, Total, Schlumberger, Unilever, Philips, WHO and US Embassy.

CELEBRATING TEN YEARS OF SUCCESS

Aatiqa Latif

Senior Trainer & Consultant

AREAS OF EXPERTISE:

Women's Success Coaching Workshop Series
Leadership through Transformation
Problem Solving through Decision Tree Analysis

Aatiqa is management executive with a focus is in positioning developing market entities for entry onto global platforms. She has been recognized for her ability to lend a unique perspective to both business and corporate law matters in emerging economies. Previously, she was a strategy consultant with the global consulting firm BearingPoint and later, an Associate Partner heading the Corporate Practice Group of the Pakistan based multinational law firm of Awan Raza. Most recently Aatiqa was General Counsel /EVP Strategy where she was instrumental in the change management transition of Pakistan's oldest financial institution, HBFC, from public to private sector.

Aatiqa is vocal advocate on women's empowerment initiatives within the region and was the founder of a Chicago-based women's publication, Sahaara Magazine. She furthers that knowledge base providing management training courses, empowerment and success coaching and mentoring to up-and-coming entrepreneurs through The Indus Entrepreneurs (TiE), Islamabad chapter. As visiting faculty at the internationally ranked National University of Science and Technology (NUST), she established and taught the university's first Strategic Management curriculum to its inaugural graduating BBA class. In 2011, Aatiqa conceived of and executed a unique people-focused outreach media campaign which earned the APNS Marketing Campaign of the Year Award conferred by the President of Pakistan.

Aatiqa is a Certified Director of the Board and Third Party Mediator, and country contributor in Resolving Corporate Governance Disputes publications for the International Monetary Fund (IMF). She is a Doctor of Law (J.D.) from South Texas College of Law and holds an MBA in Strategy from Texas A&M University.

Aatiqa Latif

Senior Trainer & Consultant

Training Areas:

Women's Success Coaching Workshop Series

Corporate programs to support companies' diversity and women's leadership efforts in the Pakistani workplace. Course gives in-depth understanding of changes in perception and attitude required for female private-sector professionals to promote their own career advancement and professional success in a male-dominated workplace.

Leadership through Transformation

Addressing the changing dynamics of Corporate Pakistan through developing a new breed of leaders and leadership through transforming the organizational Authoritarian mindset to a Transformational approach. This course aligns organization with leadership trends of the most successful global organization in the world.

Problem Solving through Decision Tree Analysis

This course provides a dependable structured methodology for helping to choose between several courses of action, a highly effective design within which you can lay out options and investigate the possible outcomes and objectively evaluate alternatives in order to formulate the resulting correct course of action.

Personal Clients

Possibilities[®]

Evoking Magnificence

CELEBRATING TEN YEARS OF SUCCESS

